

PIEDMONT
COUNCIL
OF
THE ARTS

www.charlottesvillearts.org

THE ARTS IN YOUR INBOX

Lydia Csato Gasman. Lost Allegory, 2006 - 2007.
Oil, acrylic, and collage on canvas.

Homes of the Homeless by Lydia Gasman

Les Yeux du Monde

www.lesyeuxdumonde.com

Through March 1

Signed copies of Lydia Csato Gasman's recently published book, War and the Cosmos in Picasso's Writings, will be available for purchase during this vibrant exhibition of her work. Gasman is currently Professor Emeritus of Art History at UVA and has been credited in The New York Review of Books as "the only Picasso scholar" to have deciphered his writings and paintings. Visit www.lydiagasman.com to learn more about the artist.

Les Yeux du Monde, 11am - 5pm, Tuesday - Saturday;
And by appointment - 434.973.5566
115 South First Street, Charlottesville

Visit PCA's Online Calendar for complete listings of arts and cultural events.

Songs for a New World

UVA Department of Drama

<http://www.virginia.edu/drama>

February 20-23 at 8pm, Culbreth Theatre

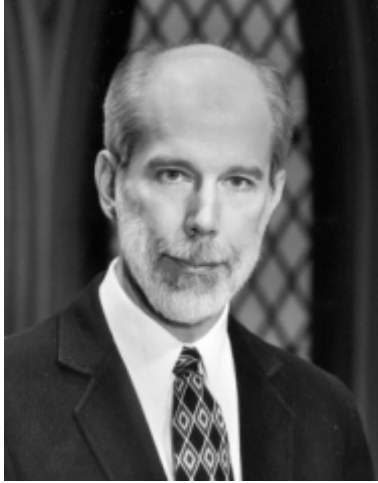

Tony Award-winning composer Jason Robert Brown's acclaimed revue features a collection of genre-hopping and soul-stirring tunes that invite a new generation to discover the power of musical theatre. Subjects and scenarios skip across the expanse of history, covering a full spectrum of human emotions against a rich backdrop. Each comes together at "that moment," the undeniable turning point where one must hit a wall or make a stand. Click here for more information.

Tickets are $16 for adults, $14 for seniors and $10 for students. Available through the UVA Department of Drama Box Office - 434.924.3376, or at Culbreth Theatre, Monday - Friday, 1-6pm.

The stories and characters in Songs for a New World make us think about our own forks in the road and appeal to the explorer in us all.

Visit PCA's Online Calendar for complete listings of arts and cultural events.

Organist Bruce Stevens in Concert

Westminster Organ Concert Series
<http://www.avenue.org/organconcerts/>

February 22 at 8pm, Westminster Presbyterian Church

The Westminster Organ Concert Series will continue its 2007-2008 season with a free public concert on Friday, February 22 at 8pm in the sanctuary of Westminster Presbyterian Church. The concert will feature organist Bruce Stevens and consist of works by Buxtehude, Bach, Mozart, Brahms and Rheinberger. Stevens frequently plays for the annual national conventions of the Organ Historical Society, and he has performed for regional conventions of the American Guild of Organists and most recently, for the national convention of the American Institute of Organbuilders. Active as a recording artist, he has recorded seven discs for Raven Recordings.

Bruce Stevens is an accomplished organ recitalist in the U.S. and Europe and Founding Director of Historic Organ Study Tours.

The concert is FREE and open to the public, and there is ample parking behind the Church.

Westminster Presbyterian Church
 190 Rugby Road, Charlottesville

Visit PCA's Online Calendar for complete listings of arts and cultural events.

Jazz Percussionist Warren Smith in Concert

University of Virginia McIntire Department of Music
<http://www.virginia.edu/music/>

February 27 at 7pm, Satellite Ballroom

The University of Virginia's Arts Administration Program and the McIntire Department of Music present master percussionist Warren Smith in concert. A seminal jazz musician, Smith founded one of the first and longest-running education and performance lofts in New York City, Studio WIS. Downbeat Magazine has called him "... a sonic explorer whose combinations of percussive stimuli define a broad spectrum of textures, timbres and polyrhythmic overlays."

The first set of this FREE show at Satellite Ballroom will be a solo performance, followed by a jam-format second set. Tickets available at the door.

Satellite Ballroom
 1435 University Ave., Charlottesville - 434.293.7005

Warren Smith has been essential in the development and definition of Afro-American music over the past several decades.

UVA McIntire Department of Music

112 Old Cabell Hall, Charlottesville - 434.924.3052

Visit PCA's Online Calendar for complete listings of arts and cultural events.

"Beyond Jamestown: Virginia Indians Yesterday and Today"

Virginia Discovery Museum
www.vadm.org/

Through May 11

This ground-breaking children's museum exhibit examines Virginia Indian history from the Indian perspective, revealing vibrant and thriving cultures. Young people can enter the homeland of Virginia Indian peoples amid the sounds of birds, rustling leaves, and Native flute. Exhibition features include a longhouse with log benches, a re-created one-room school, and the work of contemporary Virginia Indian artists. Beyond Jamestown is a unique opportunity to experience the history and cultures of Virginia Indians.

Robert Llewellyn © 2006. First printed in Empires in the Forest by Avery Chenoweth (text) and Robert Llewellyn (photography). Charlottesville: University of Virginia Press, 2006.

Virginia Discovery Museum, East End of the Downtown Mall
Charlottesville - 434.977.1025

Visit PCA's Online Calendar for complete listings of arts and cultural events.

ABOUT PCA

Piedmont Council of the Arts
www.charlottesvillearts.org

Piedmont Council of the Arts (PCA) is the designated arts agency of Charlottesville and Albemarle County, with outreach to Fluvanna, Greene, Nelson, Orange, Staunton and Waynesboro. PCA has promoted the arts in our region for nearly thirty years, encouraging relationships between local artists, arts organizations, and the vibrant communities that support them.

Click here to join us and become a member of Piedmont Council of the Arts.

Email info@charlottesvillearts.org if you have an upcoming event that you'd like highlighted in The Arts In Your Inbox.

PCA is proud to recognize the NTELOS Foundation as a 2008 sponsor of Charlottesvillearts.org.

Piedmont Council of the Arts
P.O. Box 2426, Charlottesville, VA 22902 | 434.971.2787 | info@charlottesvillearts.org |
www.charlottesvillearts.org

This email was sent to LesYeuxLBR@aol.com. To ensure that you continue receiving our emails, please add us to your address book or safe list.

manage your preferences | opt out using TrueRemove®.

Got this as a forward? Sign up to receive our future emails.

powered by  emma